

2018 RLPSA Salute to Excellence Award

Nomination Deadline: Sunday, July 1, 2018

Awards Presentation: The RLPSA Awards will be presented at the RLPSA Annual Conference, prior to the Tuesday evening signature networking event.

Awards Objective: The Award recognizes individuals or teams who exemplify excellence in restaurant security through contributions to security programs that protect restaurant employees, customers, data and assets. The award will also recognize thought leaders who have developed and implemented innovative strategies or programs to address restaurant security challenges.

Award Criteria: Nominees should exhibit strong leadership and an innovative approach, going “above and beyond” daily responsibilities to make a difference in restaurant loss prevention and security. Nominees will be evaluated on the following criteria:

- Thought leadership
- Contribution to LP programs that protect restaurants, customers and employees
- Development and implementation of innovative strategies or programs to address restaurant security challenges
- Key metrics and benefits achieved
- Representing the standards and procedures of RLPSA and the restaurant security industry

Guidelines for Nominators: Only current foodservice or service provider employees qualify for nomination. We suggest third-party nominators notify the nominee before submitting a nomination. Individuals are welcome to nominate themselves.

Selection Committee: The 2018 RLPSA Awards Selection Committee, comprised of the RLPSA Program Committee and Board Members, will review nominations for completeness and content as well as select the Award winners.
