Hello!

The 2025 RLPSA Annual Conference is fast approaching! This year's conference promises to deliver timely and engaging content, addressing both current challenges and emerging opportunities in our industry.

Here's a preview of what you can expect:

- Keynote Speaker: Mark Davidson, Retired CIA Chief of Station and Founder of Map+Monitor Risk Mapping and Mitigation Consulting Service, will deliver an insightful address on Emerging Geo-Political Risks: Leveraging Intelligence Operations.
- Sessions & Topics: Dive into critical industry issues, including:
 - Top Restaurant Security Concerns Today and how RLPSA tools can help mitigate them
 - Enterprise Risk Management Design
 - Practical insights on how to address the evolving landscape of risk and security
- Interactive Formats: Panel discussions and breakout sessions, offering a hands-on approach to learning from peers and experts.
- Unmatched Networking Opportunities: Connect with industry leaders and colleagues at our Welcome Reception, Networking Lunch, and Closing Reception at Ole Red.
- Explore the Exhibit Hall: Meet with over 50 solution providers showcasing the latest tools and technologies at the RLPSA exhibit hall.

Early bird registration closes this Friday! Be sure to register today to receive the best rate.
